

English

Phase 1 phonics - mainly looking at instrumental sounds and sounds of animals from local environment and those of foreign animals.

Working towards writing our own version of The Enormous Turnip.

Acting out stories - Changing the three billy goats gruff into African animals

Acting out the enormous turnip - changing the animals

Create

Music:

African music

Birthday parties

Make their own musical instrument

Art:

To learn to draw the african animals

To add pattern to animals

To be able to draw footprints of animals (use potato prints)

Maths

- To start counting
- To look into shapes
- To match numerals that are the same to help with tidying up.

Books to read

The enormous turnip

The Three Billy Goats Gruff

There's a Rang-Tan in my

Smile, Crocodile, Smile

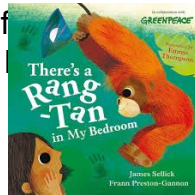

The loudest Roar

Snip snap Croc

Fast Furry Racers

Handas Surprise

The Runaway Pea

Nursery Class

Spring 1

The Arts - 'An Exotic Forest'

Our Island – Ventnor Botanical Gardens - Wellbeing, Tranquillity, Peace, Responsibility

Our Country – The Eden Project - Sustainability, Transformation, Diversity, Community

Our World – The Rainforests

Individuality, Truth, Choice, Influence

RE - Chinese New year - feb 12th -
Year of the OX

PE - Joe Wicks and cosmic yoga

Discover

History - Look at cameras - how have they changed

PSHE

Valuing differences - Same and Different (I'm Special - Your Special)

STEM

Science

To observe nature through photographs

To grow a bulb plant (amaryllis in classroom)

To observe tadpoles changing into frogs

Great British Bird count and Census day counting

Dt

To use junk to make models - such as the african animals

Computing

To use the computer to access home learning.

Explore the teach your monster to read site to develop mouse skills

Explore

Geography

To use globes and maps to spot where the cold and hot places are.

Look at different animals to learn about their habitat and compare to British animals